Preventing Youth Suicide

Join Partnership for Awareness for a screening of award-winning suicide prevention PSA student films from Directing Change, followed by expert information from Teen Line's Cheryl Karp Eskin.

Cheryl Karp Eskin is the Senior Director at Teen Line, a teen to teen hotline where teenagers can talk to a trained teen listener about any problem, no matter how big or small. She is also the co-chair of the Los Angeles Suicide Prevention Network. Cheryl started her mental health career at the age of 14 as a Teen Line listener. She has been licensed as a marriage and family therapist since 2003. Cheryl is passionate about decreasing the stigma around suicide and depression. Cheryl regularly speaks with parents and educators on improving communication with their teens as well as mental health warning signs. Cheryl is also a parent to two teens.
